

THE BARREL BUDDY

This is a must-have tool for every machine shop that deals with chip barrels.

This simple, but effective tool will make handling your chip barrels a breeze. Every machine shop that cuts metal has to deal with the chips. How many times have you cut yourself when attempting to move your chip barrels to another location? With the Barrel Buddy, you will no longer have that worry! Simply attach the Barrel Buddy to the center post of your hand truck. Place hook portion over barrel lid and tighten wing nuts until snug. You are now ready to move your chip barrels to any location of your choice.

Available in two styles!
